

Housing Application for First Year Students— Fall 2011

The residence halls will be filled to capacity by students who do not live in Klaipėda or the surrounding area. If some beds do remain available in the fall, these students will be able to request a room at that point. These requests will be considered on the basis of need and positive contribution to residence life.

Honor Code

(please read carefully)

As a student at LCC International University and a resident of a university residence hall, I am aware that I am a member of a unique international learning community. I recognize that our community has standards to help make the residence halls a place where we can mature intellectually, emotionally, socially, and spiritually. I realize that our community is diverse with many different needs and opinions. I am aware that the policies have been created to provide a safe and healthy learning environment. I understand that at times my personal freedom will be limited for the good of the greater community. I will not be able to behavior exactly as I want. I have read and understand all dorm regulations. (They are available in the LCC Student Handbook.)

Some of the specific regulations I agree to live by are (please initial each item to show your commitment):

- I will not possess or consumer alcohol in the residence halls or anywhere on campus at any time.
- If I consume alcohol, it will only be when I am not on University property.
- I will not come back to the University property drunk.
- I will limit smoking to the designated areas..
- I will refrain from promoting, using, or providing illegal drugs.
- I will respect to all members of the residence hall community
- I will limit my noise to a volume that does not disturb my neighbors and that cannot be heard inside another room, or in the hallway after quiet hours.
- I will make certain my guests leave appropriate identification at the desk and leave the building on time.
- I will not participate in acts of sexual intimacy outside of marriage on university property.
- I will take care of the dorm and accept responsibility for damages in my room.
- I will stay informed of changes to residence life policies by reading bulletin boards throughout the year and attending all mandatory residence hall and floor meetings.

I have read and understand all residence life regulations. (They will be available in greater detail in the 2011-2012 LCC International University Student Handbook.) I agree to abide by these residence life regulations and am willing to be held accountable if I choose not to follow the4m. I understand this may mean anything from a warning to housing eviction to dismissal from LCC International University.
