LCC International University accepts applications for admission from students of all nationalities and religious backgrounds who are interested in studying in an international learning community. Due to LCC's mission and vision priority for admission is given to students from Eastern Europe and CIS countries.

DEADLINE

Early admission application deadline - January 30

Late admission application deadline - March 30

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. APPLICATION FORM

Complete the application form and sign the statement of agreement with institutional policy. Each application is considered on an individual basis.

2. OTHER DOCUMENTS

Submit any additional documents that you believe would support your eligibility for the M.A. in TESOL program. This could include academic or professional proof of your qualifications and/or achievements.

3. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Submit a statement of purpose indicating why the M.A. in TESOL program at LCC International University is appropriate for your academic interests as well as academic and professional goals.

4. REFERENCES

Submit two references from people familiar with your character, academic and professional background. Preferably, at least one of the references would come from a university you have graduated from. The reference forms should be submitted in an envelope with the referee's signature across the seal.

5. ENGLISH TESTS

Present the recent scores of iBT TOEFL or IELTS tests. The minimum required scores are:

Test	Required minimum score
iBT TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)	100
IELTS (International English Language Testing System)	Band 7.0 - 7.5

The language requirement may be waived for the following reasons:

- A. Your native language is English.
- B. You have graduated from a university, where English was the language of instruction.

6. TRANSCRIPTS

Students applying for this program should hold an undergraduate degree in the area of English language studies. If you hold a degree in any other area, you should have at least 24 ECTS credits from English language studies (e.g. academic writing, linguistics, literary history and theory, language teaching, etc.) Submit transcripts of records including a list of all courses and grades. The documents should be in the original language, and in officially certified translation into English. Undergraduate GPA of at least 7 on a 10-point scale or equivalent is required.

ACADEMIC AND COMMUNITY EXPECTATIONS

LCC INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO:

Conduct themselves as responsible citizens. Involve themselves in pursuits that will strengthen their educational experience. Obey civil law and act in a manner that contributes to the welfare of the greater community. Respect the property of others and the university.

Conduct themselves with respect. This involves showing respect for all people regardless of ethnicity, religion and gender. It includes making a habit of edifying others, showing compassion, demonstrating unselfishness and displaying patience. Respect other students' need for a comfortable environment to learn, live and study.

Conduct themselves with wise and careful exercise of personal freedom. This entails the responsible use of time and material resources and the honest pursuit of knowledge, including regular attendance of classes.

While LCC International University is a Christian university, this does not mean that only those from Christian background are admitted as students. It does mean, however, that every student, whether Christian or non-Christian, must conform to policies and regulations relating to the academic and social character of this institution.

I have read the above and understand the standards and expectations outlined. If admitted to LCC International University, I agree to abide by and support these standards and values.
