ABOUT LCC INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

LCC International University is a nationally and internationally recognized university which offers Bachelor and Master degree studies in English. Established in 1991, LCC has distinguished itself in the region by engaging students in a transforming educational experience.

Today the LCC student community consists of 650 young people coming from 25 different countries: Albania, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Kosovo, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Poland, Romania, Russia, Ukraine, USA and many others.

Students can choose one of four Bachelor degree programs of study (Business Administration, English Language and Literature, Psychology, Theology) taught by more than 50 instructors coming from Western Europe, North America, and Lithuania. In the summer of 2010 LCC International University started its first Master's degree program in TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Foreign Language).

At LCC International University students find a Christian atmosphere of mutual respect and interaction. Our international faculty encourage students in their learning and show how to apply knowledge in real life situations.
