Incoming Students' Reasons for Choosing LCC

We are very glad that LCC International University this year welcomed so many new students, having in mind that other higher education institutions have to shut down some of the programs because of the decreasing student number. We are also very proud of how truly international the LCC community is. At this moment we have students from 39 different countries and the greatest numbers are from Ukraine, USA, Russia, Georgia, and of course Lithuania.

FEATURED STORIES

MES Program | An Opportunity to Take an Action

The fact that we have Middle Eastern students living and studying among us has been a signal to the global higher education community, to the global church, and to the global humanitarian entities that LCC is positioned to act, not just to talk about taking action.
