FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

In recent weeks, LCC has been privileged to host a number of distinguished guests, who have engaged us in critical conversations about difficult global issues. These conversations, together with the inspiration of our own student initiatives, offer a glimpse into the value of the LCC community.

JOHN MILLIKEN: SURPRISED TO BE BACK

Back in 2003 John Milliken and his wife Rachel took a trip to Eastern Europe for the first time and immediately felt the desire to one day come back to this part of the world and work with students. In 2011 Milliken family came to LCC for the first time with their two children. What was initially just a place to visit turned out to be a place where they felt comfortable to live, work, and raise their children.

MARYNA BARYSHEVA: FIRST YEAR STUDENT FROM UKRAINE

"I am coming to LCC, not only because I am a straight A student, but because I am a volunteer, a civic activist, a delegate, and the most importantly a person, who is in search of her path in life. I sincerely believe that this educational establishment will become a place, which helps me to open new talents and fulfill my potential to the fullest."
